BUSH CUP TO REDGAUNTLET

HAYES' IMPROVED HORSE PROVES A STAYER AND DEFEATS YANKEE GIRL.

Marse Abe Takes Another Race-E. T. Shipp De feats Ketchemike-Warner Griswell Recovers Form-Notter Suspended Again.

New Orleans, La., February 15.—The running of the Bush Cup Handicap at two and one-quarter miles was the chief feature of today's racing. Yankee Girl, coupled with Temaceo, constituted the Ellison entry, and were most favored in the betting. Notter at once sent Yankee Girl into an early lead, while Powers on Temaceo had waiting orders and trailed distantly. Notter, during the first mile and a half, repeatedly fouled Alma Dufour, Redgauntlet and Donna, Redgauntlet receiving the bulk of this on account of his close proximity to Yankee Girl throughout. Oft, who rode Redgauntlet, was finally forced to take him back and try to go around Yankee Girl on the stretch turn, but Notter, noting the move, and also observing that the Hayes horse was not tiring, began carrying the latter out with the view of letting Temaceo, which was gaining, come up near the inner rail and win. Redgauntlet, however, was sest today, and easily drew away in the stretch run, to win by over a length, Yankee Girl retaining second place from Temaceo, with Alma Dufour and Donna lecaten off.

After the finish it was expected that both of the place from Temaceo, with Alma Dufour and Donna leaten off.

After the finish it was expected that both of the Ellison horses would be disqualified, but for some reason the judges allowed the race to stand as they finished, although admitting that Notter had fouled Redgauntlet by suspending him for ten days.

A high wind during the night dried the track considerably, but the going remained heavy and caused a number of withdrawals from the different races.

Rough riding in the second race was chiefly responsible for the defeat of Blue Lee, the favorite. Queen's Souvenir, the winner, almost threw him down on the turn into the stretch and drew away to win from Albert Star, Blue Lee taking third place. Powers claimed a foul, but the officials would not allow it.

Marse Abe again showed his excellence by spreadengling his opponents in the opening race and winning in a canter from Hammock Boy. The latter would have been closer up but for being taken wide on the turn.

P. Dunne's Warner Griswell, under a good ride from Notter, proved easily best of those, in the fifth race.

In the third Dunne lost a hard race with his Ketchemike through Notter's bad judgment in allowing him to drop too far back in the first quarter and go wide into the stretch. E. T. Shipp, which won, had to be ridden out to the last inch to get in front of Ketchemike.

After many attempts Katie Powers found conditions to her liking and, aided by a good ride from Notter, managed to win from Denigre.

The defeat of Dr. McCluer in the closing race was a stunner, Sir Toddington winning as his rider pleased. After the finish a deputy sheriff took charge of Dr. McCluer, having previously served an attachment in favor of the American Printing Company against Victor F. Britton, for a debt of $315. Jockey V. Powers was suspended by the starter for five days for disobedience at the post.

T. P. Hayes had engaged J. Lee to ride Redgauntlet in the handicap, but his three-days suspension for rough riding prevented him filling the engagement. Hayes tried to persuade the officials to begin an investigation. In view of further ugly rumors that one was used on First Mason yesterday, B. Burton, his rider, was questioned at length, and was also, it is said, subjected to a searching by paddock judge Lyle before the horse left the paddock, without result. After today's inter

EASTERN RACING OFFICIALS APPOINTED.

New York, February 15.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club held at the Windsor Arcade, with James R. Keene, F. K. Sturgis, John H. Bradford, H. K. Vosburgh, handleapper; Mars Cassidy, starter: Chris. Cornehlson, clerk of the scales; Clarence McDowell and C. H. Pettingill, judges; J. L. Hall, patrol judge, and W. H. Baretto, timer.

Pimlico—A. B. Dade, starter; Frank J. Bryan, and William P. Riggs, judges; Joseph A. Murphy, finadicapper; Ben Hellen, clerk of the course and scales, and Frank W. Howard, patrol judge, Buffalo—Joseph A. Murphy, judge and handicapper; A. B. Dade, starter; E. W. Mills, timer; H. McBride, starting judge, and W. H. Lerch, clerk of the scales.

MACDONOUGH WILL SELL HIS RACERS.

W. O'B. Macdonough has decided to abandon racing and confine his attention to his Menlo Stock Farm. He returned to the turf this winter after an absence of several years with a formidable stable of two-year-olds, but will sell all his youngsters in training at auction on March 10.

Astley Cooper Named for Noted English Surgeon—
Two Foals by Rock Sand at Nursery Stud.

Lexington, Ky., February 15.—Dr. J. D. Neet, the master of Kindergarten Stud, that establishment in Woodford county near the town of Versailles, where such good thoroughbreds as Handsome, Hastings, Handsel, Plaudit, Penteost, Glenheim and Gulden first saw the light of day, is in a particularly happy frame of mind over the prospect that Astley Cooper, the two-year-old bay coilt by Don de Oro-Glass Silpper, by Spendthrift, will develop into a sterling race horse.

"This colt is a rare one and he has shown me more than any other horse I ever handled was capable of at the same age," said Dr. Neet after attending the meeting of breeders here last Thursday. "I began breaking him in August and I had him in training at my farm until the latter part of November. It was something over three months. I exercised great care with him in these first lessons and when I was ready to ask I lim to run, he was ready to run. Every quarter of a mile I sent him was accomplished in better than 223 seconds. Over the same track the best I was able to get out of Plaudid and Pentecost was 233 seconds and Hastings and Gulders never showed me a quarter better than 237 seconds. Those they were race horses. I have had several visitors to my place to look him over critically and express much admiration for him until inquiring as to his breeding. I told them he is by Don de Oro. "Oh. I do not like that," they have said. "Don de Oro was a fast horse and a good horse, but there is that relationship to Tea Tray. He's apt to be a sulker," After working the colt as I have. I cannot agree with my friends and visitors. He has never displayed the slightest inclination to sulk and I am of the opinion that he never will.

"A few days ago J. N. Van Orden and his trainer, Con Leighton, were at my place. They had seen the two-year-olds I sent out to Benning to W. H. Moshy in January, and they fancied Princess Pine, the full sister to Fine Cut. Mr. Van Orden, offered me $ shall feel that I have had much out of the ownership of this colt."

To date only three of the fifty-odd mares at August Belmont's Nursery Stud have foaled and two of the baby thoroughbreds are by the celebrated English race horse and stallion. Rock Sand. One of these, as was reported some time ago, is out of Fetish, the dam of Forward, Faction and Flim Flam, by Rayon d'or, out of Feu Follet, by Kingfisher. This colt, now nearly a month old, having been foaled January 20, has been much admired by visitors to the Nursery. On February 3, Tea's Over, by Hanover—Tea Rose, foaled a bay filly by Rock Sand, and superintendent Kane is wearing "the smile that won't come off," for this little miss, in addition to being perfectly formed and good to look upon, is kin to four that have made their marks on the American turf. She is a half-sister to Dick Welles, Ort Wells, Security and Dick Finnell. The other foal is a bay colt which came on February 10, being by J. B. Haggin's Watercress, out of Lady Violet, by The Ill-Used. Lady Violet is the dam of Lady Violet, Lord of the Valley, Lady Vincent and Lord of the Forest.

KENTUCKY REPRESENTATIVES AT ALBANY.

Lexington, Ky., February- 15.—Major Philip P. Johnston, Colonel Milton Young and Colonel John R. Allen have been selected to represent the breeding interests of Kentucky at the hearing of the Hart-Agnew bill before the joint Codes Committees of the New York legislature at Albany mext Wednesday, and they will leave for Albany Monday.

Major Johnston, in addition to being president of the National Trotting Association, is the proprietor of Montrose Farm, where he maintains both a thoroughbred and trotting stud. Colonel Young is the proprietor of McGrathiana Stud, which embraces 2.000 acres of land and about 500 thoroughbreds. Colonel Allen is probably the most distinguished barrister of this section, and is the dark horse in the context for the United States senatorship now on in the legislature at Frankfort. He is a sportsman born and thoroughly in sympathy with the sport of racing, although he is not a breeder or owner of horses.

The selection gives entire satisfaction, and the breeders know they will be ably represented at the hearing. They believe that the statements to be made by these gentlemen will go a long way in the direction of defeating the bill which proposes to repeal the Percy-Gray law.

LYNE HAS BUSY SEASON BEFORE HIM.

Lexington, Ky., February 15.—Jockey Lucien Lyne is making preparation to sail from New York about February 20. He has made no contract with anyone abroad this year. He expects to ride for the greater part in England, but will accept engagements in Ireland, France and Belgium. He has an understanding that he will accept mounts for Richard Croker, James Buchanan, Richard Dawson and others. Lyne has spent much of the winter in hunting and bas not taken on excessive fiesh. He will be ready to ride at about 116 pounds when he arrives in England. He says he is tiring of the saddle and hopes that he can be sufficiently fortunate this year that he can make it his last as a jockey. It is his hope to be able to engage in some business that will bring him an income of $5,000 yearly.

ROSE QUEEN'S STAKE RACE

DEFEATS OCEAN MAID AND RUBIA GRANDA FOR THE GUNST STAKES.

Prince Brutus Scores at Long Odds-Old Bucolic Defeats Deutschland-Exchequer Takes Another Race-Track Good.

Oakland. Cal., February 15.—The first important two-year-old fixture of the local season, the Ganst Stakes at a half mile, was won at Oakland today by the unbeaten Rose Queen, by Kingston—White Rose, and bred by James R. Keene at his Castleton Stud in Kentucky. Rose Queen ran in the colors of a race follower named A. Koenigsberger, who had purchased the fleet filly from H. T. Griffin late Friday night for a reported price of $4,000. Griffin scratched Trance and added Ocean Maid, which, after beginning slowly, closed a tremendous gap, finally downing Rubia Granda for second honors in the last stride.

The winner was particularly well served throughout the running and may have been lucky to win, although the race was won in the phenomenally fast time of 48 seconds over a track that was far from fast. Thomas H. Williams' entry, Rubia Granda, which was a strong second choice, outpaced the favorite to the turn where she bolted, forcing her jockey, Walter Miller, to pull the filly almost to a standstill to keep her from bolting the course, and it was only in the final sixteenth that she got down to her work and despite losing a half dozen lengths, finished as fast as the winner and was only nosed out of second place by Ocean Maid. It is said that Rubia Granda was not at her best and experts believe that she will be able to reverse today's running later on.

Canardo Gets Brackets Again.

Los Angeles, Cal., February 15.—Paradise Queen, an outsider in the betting, carried off the Santa Ana Stakes today from the best juveniles here. Achieve, well backed by talent and public alike, ran a disappointing race and failed to finish in the first three. The public was deceived in regard to the winner's true form on account of her poor showing some few days ago.

Dugan, not to be outdone by Moriarity when he brought Merrill home a winner in the first race last Tuesday, rode a good race on the horse today. Merrill was held at practically the same price in the betting today as was laid against him in the previous race. San Nicholas gradually closed up a for second place in the last stride. Halton, which set the early pace with Bill Mayham, tired near the end. Bill Mayham quit badly in the final drive.

Canardo, in winning the second race, won his fourth successive victory at this track. Kerry, a recent winner, went out in front right after the start and, showing great speed, led by a wide margin to the stretch, where Canardo finally wore him down. Friar of Elgin was heavily backed to win just before post time, but fell away fast after going a good half. Harvel's race was in glaring contrast to his recent brilliant performances.

Rapid Water came back to the races today to redeem himself for his defeat by Roalta and Magatine last Thursday and did it in impressive fashion. Bugan held the big son of Rapallo under restraint until reaching the stretch when he gave the horse his head and quickly overtook Marster and, winning a good half. Winner—Br. f, by Waterboy—Rose Carlo (trained by J. Blute).

Went to post at 3:03. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Paradise Queen regained her speed suddenly and was always a forward contender, closed up fast on Duke of Milan after entering the stretch and, after a shaking up when a sixteenth out, got up in the closing strides. Duke of Milan, off flying, displayed great speed, but tired badly under the whip in the final sixteenth. Foreguard, finishing with a great rush, nipped Achieve out in the last stride for third place. The latter tired badly in the final sixteenth after being a close contender from the start. Frieze ran a good race. The others were always outpaced.

Winner—Ch. h, by Star Shoot—Magna Charta (trained by P. T. Chinn).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Chalfonte ran close up to the stretch, then slipped through on the inside in the final eighth and, finishing fast, won going away. Mary F. showed the most speed for seven furlongs, but tired when challenged in the closing strides. Ed Ball closed a gap and, under punishment, tired in the last hundred yards. Aucassin ran well to the stretch and tired in the final drive. Alleviator went well for three-quarters and quit badly. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Winner—Ch. g, by Brutus—Princess, by Cheviot (trained by R. O. Wilson).
Went to post at 2:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.
Prince Brutus, lucky and forwardly placed to the stretch, finished fast and drew out decisively at the end.
Triumphant set the pace fast to the final sixteenth before he succumbed and is extra good. Phil Igoe, away poorly, closed a big gap. Cholk Hedrick, shuffled quickly to the rear, made up much ground in the last half. Governor Orman was prominent for five furlongs and probably short. Captain Burnett had a rough inside journey. El Cazador got away very badly. The winner was entered for $400; no bid. ind Horses AWt PPSt 1/2 1/2 3/4 Str Fin Jockeys OHCPS

Won driving; second and third the same Janeta, fresh, and in rare form, from a slow inside start closed up rapidly under vigorous riding and made good finally in a cyclonic rush. May Amelia outbroke and outpaced the others for six furlongs and succumbed right at the end. Ruth W., from a striding outside start, ran in nearest and strenuous early pursuit of the leaders, but tired and swerved finally. Sophomore, away poorly, made up ground. Cloyne shuffled repeatedly to the rear, finished with a belated rush. Silver Wedding showed early speed and tired as if short. Elota also showed brief speed.

Winner—Br. f, by Kingston—White Rose (trained by W. Cahill).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Rose Queen drew out in the second furlong, saved ground all the way and held sway to the end, running straight and true and probably was best. Ocean Maid began slowly and was shuffled back to last in the first sixteenth, then closed an immense gap into a fast going second. Rubia Granda outpaced fhe cthers for the first furlong, then commenced to run out and let Rose Queen up on the inside, boring ont sharply to midway of the stretch, then came again when straightened out. Seattle was prominent midway of the stretch, but tired finally. Little Jane showed brilliant speed for three furlongs and was a contender for second place up to the last sixteenth. The same applies to Carrie Thatcher and both are very promising.

Bucolic, within striking distance from the start, steadily improved his position and got up to win drawing out finally. Deutschland, away poorly, closed a big early gap quickly and was a game contender to the end. Ovelando, well up throughout, just saved third place and was palpably short. Andrew B. Cook set a tremendous pace, but tired right at the end and is extra good. Botanist, away very badly, closed an immense gap on the extreme outside. Timothy Wen ran a good race. Braggart showed brilliant early speed, but was short.

Scratched—(73157)Smiley Corbett, 112.

E. T. Shipp, away slowly, responded gamely to hard urging and, wearing down Financier on the stretch turn, stood the final drive gamely and stayed well to the end. Ketchemike dropped back early and was forced to go wide almost throughout, but finished with a good rush and would have won in a few more strides. Financier was speedy, but was raced into exhaustion in wearing Mae Hamilton down. The latter had the best of the start and ran well to the stretch, but tired fast after going a half. Winner—B. c. by Sir Walter—Orangeade (trained by T. P. Hayes).

Went to post at 3:18. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Redgauntlet, always a forward contender and favored by the going, was reserved for the first mile and a half and, coming on gamely in the last half, wore Yankee Girl down steadily despite repeated interference and drew away in the last furlong. Yankee Girl, under hard restraint, set the pace for a mile and three-quarters and tired in the last furlong, but might have won had Notter gone about his business instead of trying to impede Redgauntlet. Temaceo was allowed to trail far back to the last half, where he moved up stoutly, but was not good enough. Alma Dufour tired in the last three-quarters. Donna quit badly after going a mile.

Winner—Br. g. by Ornus—Sarah (trained by F. Hanlon).
Went to post at 3:47. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Warner Griswell, always prominent and suddenly improved, went into the lead when called on and won casing up. Adesso was always in forward contention and stood the final drive gamely, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Heart of Hyacinth ran gamely and finished fast. Halbard showed speed, but was taken wide throughout and should have been much closer up. Granada quit after setting the pace for three-quarters. Hawkama ran out on the stretch turn. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—(73106)Druid, 107; (73183)John Smulski, 112.

Winner—B. m, by Longstreet—Miss Modish (trained by M. J. Reardon).

Went to post at 4:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same.

Katle Powers began slowly, but moved up gradually and, drawing up to Denigre in the stretch, finally won drawing clear. Denigre was away slowly, but raced into the lead in the first half and held on gamely in the final drive, his rider almost falling off. Creel ran a good race all the way. Mr. Peabody had no mishaps and ran fairly well. De Reszke ran poorly. Pinsticker and Nancy were prominent for three-cuarters. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—73161 Clifton Forge, 112; 72971 Lucy Marie, 99.

Overweights—Katie Powers, 3 pounds; Denigre, 1; Nancy, 1½.

REVENTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (67201—1:452-6—104.) $400 added. 4-year-olds and unward Salling Not value to winner $225.

Went to post at 4:36. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Str Toddington, showing the most speed, dashed into a long lead at once and won all the way. Dr. McCluer, away slowly and kept back for the first three-quarters, closed a big gap, but tired in the last furlong.
Zipango was prominent all the way and ran fairly well. Keator, in poor form, quit badly after going three-quarters. Ivanhoe tired as if short after going a half and can do better. The winner was entered ee-quarters. Ivannoe tried as a service as $1,000; no bid. $1,000; no bid. Scratched—73084 Jersey Lady, 97; 73063 Javanese, 102.

Flaunt pulled up lame after his last race at Oakland and it was at first thought that the old gelding had broken down completely.

Mose Goldblatt says the heavy track at Oakland is responsible for the poor showing of his filly, Keep Moving, has made since her arrival on the coast. "She may not be able to beat Uncle or Meelick," says Goldblatt, "but if I can have a track on which I can do as much with her as I ought to do between now and Derby day, she will take a lot of beating in the big race."
